Danny Shirley (Confederate Railroad)

Grammy nominated country music artist best known as lead singer of the country rock band Confederate Railroad, Shirley also recorded for Amor Records and charted five singles of his own. The former backup band for both David Allan Coe & Johnny Paycheck had chart toppers including She Took It Like A Man, Jesus and Mama, Queen of Memphis followed by mega hits Trashy Women, When You Leave That Way You Can Never Go Back, and She Never Cried.

Roger Alan Wade

Chattanooga native and songwriter, Wade has written songs for country legends Johnny Cash, Waylon Jennings, George Jones, Hank Williams Jr. and many others. Wade never fails to mesmerize with his lyrical genius and many put his talent in the company of the likes of Guy Clark and Townes Van Zandt as a premier songwriter. His songs are stories delivered with a palpable emotional conviction that unfolds with a poet’s wit and wisdom that leaves the audience wanting more.

Walt Wilkins, Texas Troubadour

He plays all over Texas & as much as the US as he can get to, and even in Europe. He knows a wide, beautiful variety of mighty poets, pickers, philosophers, artists, and wild spirits. Wilkins says he is a most fortunate man. Mostly, he drives, plays, sleeps & dreams ... It is a rich experience, a wild ride, and the way he makes his way. He hopes to meet you if he hasn't. And, if he has, hopes to see you again soon on this path. Cheers.
